DELAY IN REOPENING OF JALAN SUNGAI BULOH

Selangor, 2 January 2016 - Jalan Sungai Buloh at Kg Baru Sungai Buloh / Kg Selamat which was closed since 11:00PM last night was re-opened to motorists at 4:00PM today.

An unexpected technical problem was encountered during the installation of the pedestrian link bridge to Kpg Selamat MRT Station. All efforts were made to expedite the installation of safety protection and the lifting of the closure as soon as possible.

Traffic police together with the traffic controller on site were in place to manage the traffic and assist motorists during the closure. Motorists were directed to use the NKVE and Persiaran Surian to avoid the section of Jalan Sungai Buloh.

We apologise for the inconvenience caused.
